WOMEN 2 WOMEN

Reach your dreams through vision boarding

Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) hosted its first online networking event of the year, on 8 March, with sponsors Chubb and Camargue.

The theme of 'reaching your dreams through vision boarding' was the perfect fit to get us feeling positive and motivated for 2021. It clarifying the priorities for goal setting with eight categories including career, finance, personal growth, health, family, relationships, social life and spirituality, guest speaker Lee Ann Naidoo, of Concordia helped the ladies bring their vision boards to life by... Mind the (pay) gap

Women are doing incredible things, propelling the world forward in so many ways, despite the fact that gender inequality persists. The International Labour Organisation's (ILO) Global Wage Report stated that in SA, women continue to be paid 28% less than men... Read more

Words for a generation of fearless women

Creating a differing narrative from the one projected onto you, in the environment in which you find yourself, is no easy task. It often requires your silence. Personally, I am comforted by the hope that, it will create a future with familiar faces at the table for the generation... Read more

Food versus exercise: What's the difference?

Searching for the best way to lose weight? Should the emphasis be on diet, or can the solution be found in the gym? Well, the answer lies somewhere in between. In the red corner of the weight-loss title fight, sits the dieting contender. On the surface, dieting would appear to have the edge, because, no matter what a person's genetic makeup and metabolism, anyone... Read more

Legal Talk: The consequences of paying an admission of guilt fine

You might be finding yourself in a situation where you are being accused of allegedly committing a criminal offence and have the option of paying an admission of guilt fine. Before considering paying the fine, you must first understand what it means and what the consequences are going to be if you do pay the fine... Read more
