Mix n Mingle – Self-Love Session: Eat, Move, Thrive

With February being the month of LOVE, Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) injected a little self-LOVE into our daily rituals as it hosted a Mix n Mingle – Self-Love Session: Eat, Move, Thrive, on 10 February, with main sponsor Discovery, and co-sponsors Chubb, Innovation Group and ONE Financial Services.

Ready to move from surviving to thriving, the ladies learned how to eat and move to optimise both body and mind, with guest speaker Angie Daubermann (Health & fitness coach, entrepreneur & founder of the LEAN GIRL brand)... Read more

Own your financial journey and thrive

It's a long-held truth that if you uplift women, you uplift society. Women have come a long way in empowering themselves, excelling in areas from arts and sport, to business and politics. Yet, when it comes to their finances most women still shy away... Read more

Women... beacons of hope for what is possible

Kamala Harris. Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala. These are some of the well-known names of women who have become beacons of hope for what is possible. Yet, many women continue to face steeper challenges in society, and this has become even more evident due to the coronavirus pandemic... Read more

How to empower women around you

Don't spread rumours, engage in gossip, or tell stories at someone else's expense. Stand up for each other. Put in a good word for others. Do you know that people (subconsciously) judge you according to how you talk about others? If you're nice to people... Read more

Do you struggle with building a network? 5 networking tips for women

Ignoring networks can damage or limit your career and leadership effectiveness. The right relationships and ties are known to be an asset in earning promotions and gaining opportunities. Having the right network is a real... Read more

Here's how to protect yourself in everyday situations

Gender-based violence is another 'pandemic' that is targeting South African women. You need to know how to protect yourself. We are constantly aware of our vulnerability, and our need for self-defence... we try not to walk on the streets alone... Read more

Legal talk: types and jurisdiction of South African courts

The judicial authority in South Africa is vested in the courts, which are independent and subject only to the Constitution and the law.

South Africa has a number of different types of courts. Which court you approach or will hear your case will depend on the case... Read more
