GWII Leaderwalk: Unstucking for post pandemic success

In collaboration with Business Engage and the 30% Club, Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) hosted a Leaderwalk on 9 June, with main sponsor, Marsh, and co-sponsors Camargue, F&I Insurance, F&I Reinsurance and Genasys.

Themed “Unstucking for Post Pandemic Success”- the topic focused on leaders being unstuck. Guest speaker Zipho Sikhakhane, a global speaker, thought leader, writer, business strategist, and CEO of EMZ Advisory, advised delegates on how she became an unstuck leader, since March 2020, and provided insightful guidelines on... South Africa's women are financially savvy

South Africa's women are financially savvy with more women having life cover, and keeping it, than men. 1Life's research shows that 12% more women have life cover than men. Similarly, women have also been more careful about keeping this cover in place during COVID-19 compared... Read more

Balancing gender diversity and inclusion

In balancing gender diversity and inclusion (D&I) practices, employers have long signaled the equal opportunity tag line. One does not require science to show that we are still a long way from balance. According to a study conducted by BCG and the UN Women, Covid-19 intensifies the pressure on this subject. Given the economic burden that will follow in the next few years... Read more

Studies find links between oral hygiene and self-esteem

Phillips recently revealed the results of the study on the "Evolution of oral health during the pandemic," and the results are no surprise, the state of your teeth has a great impact on your self-esteem. A similar study also found that a person's self-esteem... Read more
