

Promoting the networking of women who work in the short term insurance industry in Gauteng, South Africa.

WOMEN 2 WOMEN

GWII and IIG celebrate YOU-(U)niqueness

With the theme 'Celebrating YOU-(U)niqueness', Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII), in collaboration with the Insurance Institute of Gauteng (IIG), hosted an event for Women's Day, celebrating the fact that all of us are unique in our own way. Keynote speaker for the day, Melinda Bam, former Miss South Africa, TV presenter and social influencer shared her thoughts around celebrating uniqueness... Read more

Is there a link between breast cancer and birth control?

Specialist surgeon Dr Justus Apffelstaedt made startling links between the use of progestogen containing IUDs, such as the popular Mirena, and an increased risk of developing breast cancer... Read more

Inga Beale inspires women to dream big

Inga had humble aspirations following a bumpy start as a trainee underwriter. She recalled that, "I fell into insurance after studying mathematics... I just got hooked and I never looked back." This, despite the male-dominated culture she experienced at her first job with a British reinsurer, working in an open-concept office alongside 34 men... Read more

Empower women to thrive, and let others lead

One of the most powerful ways we can balance for better, no matter at what level, is to mentor and coach the next generation, building their confidence and empowering them to become the leaders of tomorrow. I have been a leader in the auditing world for more than 35 years and have found easy ways to invest in my teams... Read more

Legal talk: parental rights and responsibilities

Ever wondered what rights and responsibilities you have as a parent? The Children's Act 38 of 2005 provides that a parent has the following rights and responsibilities towards his/her child. Both parents of a child have equal rights and responsibilities, but when they are not living together, specific rights may be given... Read more
