GWII rounds off the year with a fire and ice party

Gauteng Women in Insurance welcomed members to its 'Fire and Ice' themed year-end function with main sponsors Marsh, AIG, Guy Carpenter and Innovation Group, and co-sponsors Associated Loss Adjusters, Camargue, HIC Underwriting Managers, Genasys, Sintelum, One, Constantia Insurance, Chubb and Old Mutual Insure. The guests enjoyed watching fire dancers as they played out a dramatic scene with fire. Following a bonfire ceremony, in which the ladies 'burned the past' with written words on paper, members were brought...

Increasing the number of women at leadership level – PwC report

Worldwide, gender equality continues to remain a focus area for many organisations as the awareness around the gender pay gap gains momentum. There is consensus regarding the need to transform boards and companies to bridge the gender pay gap, both from a representational perspective and in terms of pay. There is also a need for more diverse... Read more

Why the Mediterranean diet works for postmenopausal women

The Mediterranean diet has particular benefits for postmenopausal women, and the good news is that you can still drink wine! New research found that postmenopausal women who follow a Mediterranean diet have higher bone and muscle mass than those who do not... Read more

Legal Talk - domestic violence and abuse

South Africa has one of the highest incidences of domestic violence in the world. And, sadly, domestic violence is the most common and widespread human rights abuse in South Africa. Every day, women are murdered, physically and sexually assaulted, threatened and humiliated by their partners, within their own homes. Domestic violence can take a variety of forms and generally includes the following acts...
